ESOP Month 2026

BL Book Club

Welcome to the BL Book Club! Join the ESOP Committee for a literary adventure straight from the Jazz Age. Whether you're a seasoned bookworm, a casual reader, or simply looking for a new way to connect with your fellow employee owners, this challenge is your ticket to a month filled with captivating reads, newfound discoveries, and spirited discussion worthy of the finest 1920s salon.

There's a Book Club check list below so you can keep track of your progress. Some tasks can be completed more than once.

How to Earn Tickets:

- ☐ 1. Get a public library card (or explore the programs available at your library if you already have a card) (5 tickets)
- ☐☐☐ 2. Read a book about the 1920s* (and post a "finished book" Teams thread with 1–5 stars and one sentence review using the subject line: Book Review – Book Title by Author Name – Star Rating) (5 tickets each book for total of 15 tickets max)
- ☐☐☐ 3. Listen to an audiobook about the 1920s* (and post on the "finished book" Teams thread with 1–5 stars and one sentence review using the subject line: Audiobook Review – Book Title by Author Name – Star Rating) (5 tickets each book for total of 15 tickets max)
- ☐☐☐ 4. Recommend a book (and share why you liked it by posting on the Teams channel using the subject line: Book Recommendation – Book Title by Author Name) (3 tickets per reccommendation for total of 15 tickets max)
  - ☐☐
- ☐☐☐ 5. Respond to someone else's post on the Book Club Teams channel (3 tickets each reply for total of 15 tickets)
  - ☐☐
- ☐ 6. Buddy up and read the same book with a friend or fellow employee owner (10 tickets)
- ☐ 7. Watch a film adaptation of a 1920s book (2 tickets each film for total of 4 tickets)
- ☐ 8. Go on a walk to find a little free library in your neighborhood, near your office or on your usual route (some offices are even starting their own library) (5 tickets)

Books/audiobooks can either be set in the 1920s, have an original publication date in the 1920s, or be on the topic of the 1920s.*

They can also be any genre of book and for any age group (so bedtime storytime can count too).
